CITY COUNCIL CHANGES FRONT

Action Taken At Former Meeting Is Rescinded And Resolutions
Are Adopted

AFFECTS PARIS WATER SUPPLY

The Paris City Council has about faced on a proposition which the members recently considered. At a meeting held in the offices of the Peoples and Deposit Bank, representatives of the Paris Commercial Club, the Board of Health, Paris Woman's Club and the Council were present.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Council held recently the members went on record as being opposed to enactment of House Bill No. 32 and Senate Bill No. 39, giving additional powers to the State Board of Health, giving as their reason for the action that they believed the State Board already is exercising more power than is beneficial to the citizens of some communities.

At the meeting held in the Bank the true meaning of the bill was explained to the representatives of the Council, who immediately rescinded their former action. A resolution was drawn approving the bill and requesting Representative Jas. H. Thompson and State Senator Henry S. Caywood to do all in their power for its passage. Some of the Council members declared that the matter had been put before them in a wrong light, causing them to think the object of the bill was to give the State Board of Health power to regulate the water rates.

The provisions of the measure would be especially beneficial to Paris, it is believed, due to the difficulties which have been experienced here in securing a supply of pure water. According to statements of the City Board of Health and Secretary William E. Hacker, of the Paris Commercial Club repeated analyses of the water taken in the last year show the supply impure a large part of the time. The State Board of Health has been asked to remedy the situation here, but that body declined action until it had been given authority to demand such repairs in the water plant as would assure a constant supply of pure water.

THE LOCAL WEED MARKET

Fifty Loads Per Day Being Delivered To The Paris Warehouses For Grading

GROWERS ARE WELL PLEASED

Delivery of tobacco to the local houses of the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing Association, which began with a flying start Monday, has continued uninterrupted throughout the week, about fifty loads per day being received and graded on the floors of the houses. The farmers and growers have expressed satisfaction with the workings of the Association marketing plans and the prices received for the crops has been in most every case up to the expectations. In many instances the advances received have been greater than the total received for their crop last year.

Everything has gone along as regularly as clock work at the local houses with the graders, S. Kenney Nichols and Chas. B. Patterson working like beavers to keep things going along smoothly.

The loan prices on each hundred pounds of tobacco received at the Paris houses are the amounts that will be advanced to the growers on the delivery of their crops. These range from $1.00 per hundred for the poorest flyings to $26.00 per hundred for cigarette wrapper tobacco. The values are said to be about fifty to sixty per cent. of the selling price which the Association will place on the tobacco, which will average between twenty-five and thirty cents.

There seems to be an erroneous impression that the amount advanced on tobacco represents a definite proportion of the final selling price. Officials state this to be a mistake, and that none can arrive at any true conclusion of the amount this tobacco will bring in the markets of the Association, basing this conclusion upon the amount paid the grower.

The first advance check for tobacco delivered to the local houses was given to C. E. and R. C. Talbott, of the North Middletown vicinity, for the sum of $562.07, on 4,255 pounds, an average of 13.20 cents. Jesse Galloway, of near Paris, received this year, $215 more on the advance check for four acres of tobacco than he received last year as the entire amount on six acres.

Deliveries of the weed will continue from day to day until the entire crop that has been pledged to the Association has been brought safely into the houses.

ATTENTION TOBACCO GROWERS

THE BOURBON BANK & TRUST COMPANY WILL PAY ALL CHECKS GIVEN AS ADVANCES ON TOBACCO.

We have earnestly endeavored to serve the tobacco growers of the Burley belt in their present necessary and worthy effort to advance the price of tobacco. It shall be the policy of this bank to continue to aid and serve them, and every other group of our people, that may honestly and lawfully try to better their condition.

The farmers of Bourbon and adjoining counties can always count on us to be on their side and to do all we possibly can to help them. You know what we have done for the Co-operative. We further wish to announce that we will pay all checks issued by the Burley Tobacco Association to growers for advances on their tobacco.

If you wish to practice and uphold the purpose and spirit of co-operation, we should be pleased to have you do so by leaving your checks with us. We certainly have co-operated with you. We are able to handle any kind of banking or trust company transaction and will always take a real interest in your welfare and help you to solve your problems.

We will greatly appreciate your leaving your checks with us. Count on us and come to us with your business. Yours for better days for Farmers.

SOME NERVOUS THIEF

Almost any kind of thievery requires a certain amount of nerve, according to criminalists, but it takes a real nervous thief to tap a church collection box or a telephone booth. Yet the latter case happened recently in Paris, when one of the smooth-fingered "gents" rifled the coin box from a Home Telephone booth. The box was torn from the wall and carried away from the booth in the main office. The matter was reported to the police.

PLEDGE AID TO BOND ISSUE

State Commercial Club Executives Hold Important Meeting In Mt. Sterling

NEXT MEETING IN PARIS

Endorsement of the proposed $500,000 bond issue for highways, provided for in a bill now before the Kentucky Legislature, was voted unanimously at a conference of presidents, secretaries and directors of Central Kentucky commercial organizations, held Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Sterling.

The conference was attended by the following executives:

President Hoffman, Secretary Brother and Director Sharp, Mt. Sterling; Directors H. L. Nichols and J. C. Davis, Danville; Secretary H. T. Harris, retiring; Secretary W. E. Hacker and Director L. W. Bush, Paris; President P. H. Nunnally and Secretary Marshall Adams, Georgetown; President R. W. Kincaid, Secretary L. O. Kimbrough and Director C. A. Uhry, Owensville; President B. J. Treacy and Secretary C. F. Dunn, Lexington.

It was decided that the monthly conferences, which began with the Mt. Sterling meeting and will be continued throughout the year, meeting in a different city each month will be conducted purely in conference form, with no attempt to effect an organization of any kind. Cooperation for a greater Kentucky was the theme of the conference and delegates were enthusiastic at the spirit shown by all cities represented.

The president and secretary of the chamber of commerce in the city in which the conference is held will act as chairman and secretary respectively of the meeting.

Mt. Sterling representatives suggested that an effort be made to secure uniform traffic regulations throughout the State, so that visitors, including Kentuckians from other communities, would not be confused by regulations in the different cities.

Paris delegates recommended that steps be taken to secure legislation for the appointment of a State Public Service Commission, such as operate in Northern States, to have jurisdiction in the settlement of public utility controversies in cities throughout the State.

Representatives from Owensville brought to the attention of the conference legislation pending at Frankfort, which contemplates changes in highway routing previously approved for Federal aid and included in the highway bill passed by the last legislature.

Plans to give wide advertisement to the scenic and historic attractions of the Blue Grass, proposed by representatives from Georgetown and Lexington in attendance at the conference, were taken up and will be developed before the next monthly meeting of the Central Kentucky organizations. The executives will meet in Paris in February, at a date to be selected later.

MEETING OF BASE BALL MAGNATES HERE TODAY

Pursuant to a call issued some days ago by B. F. Goodman, of the Paris base ball club, a meeting of managers and others interested in the reorganization of the Blue Grass League, will be held today at the Fordham Hotel in this city. It is expected that representatives from about ten or twelve of the leading cities of Central Kentucky will be present to take part in the conference, which will be of a strictly business nature.

At this meeting plans will be discussed and the prospects for reviving the good old days of baseball in Central Kentucky will be brought up for consideration. The matters of finance, salary limits and others of equal importance to the success of the proposed league will be among the subjects to be given attention.

When asked for some advance information in regard to the meeting Mr. Goodman stated that there was very little to be said previous to that event, as it was not known just what action would be taken, but that it was reasonably certain the meeting would be a success, and that the formation of a six or eight-club league would be almost assured. Subsequent meetings will determine the amount of interest taken in the project.

A meeting of the Bourbon Post, American Legion, will be held tonight (Friday) when the principal feature will be the vote to be taken on the bonus issue. Ballots for the purpose have been received from the State Adjutant, and any member whose dues have been paid up is eligible to vote.

Another feature of this meeting will be the mock trial of the historian of the local Post, Harold F. Harris. The indictment has been drawn up by Commander Smylie, and the personnel of the court will be made up at the time of the trial. This promises to be both an entertaining and amusing stunt for the evening.

It is said that Congress proposes to abolish the nuisance taxes. Is not any tax a nuisance?

SPEAKER'S BILL TO CUT TAXES

Upsets Present System, Reduces State Funds, And Adds To The County Revenues

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL

Reclassification of property and reduction of State tax rates will be provided for in a bill to be introduced in the House by Representative W. G. Wheeler, of Warren county, chairman of the committee on revenue and taxation. It is a committee bill in which Speaker James H. Thompson is a collaborator and embodies his ideals.

"The bill will reduce the farmers' State taxes and will increase county revenues," Mr. Thompson said. When asked about the probable effect on State finances, he said:

"There are $1,000,000,000 worth of property tangible and intangible that can be reached to more than make up any deficit created by this measure. The ad valorem tax on coal land can be greatly increased and this bill distinguished between agricultural and mineral lands, assessing the surface at 30 cents on the $100 and the mineral rights at 40 cents."

While it is a committee bill, the measure does not come in, it is understood with a signed report or as representing the views of all the committee members. Mr. Wheeler said it has been agreed that when the bill, which will go into the calendar, reaches the order of the day, later its second reading, it is to be recommended for hearing before it is called up for passage.

Exemptions are removed from local taxes on farm implements, manufacturing machinery and raw material at the plant for the purpose of manufacturing, and from stock in corporations, which pay tax in Kentucky on 25 per cent of their property.

Agricultural products, not in the hands of the producer, are taxed 30 cents for county and 60 for city, a raise of 15 cents in the county and 30 in city taxes.

Intangibles are reduced from 40 to 30 cents for State purposes and subjected to a 30 cent tax for county purposes, a net raise of 20 cents.

Farm lands (surface) are reduced from 40 to 30 cents for State purposes; town lots and mineral rights and leases are taxed 40 cents.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

The Kentucky Court of Appeals has ruled that a man's grip is safe from search. And it said not a word about his trousers pockets.

The melancholy days are come. The doctor says, "See here. You're hardly sick enough for rum and I don't believe in beer."

Six thousand Mexican quail are to be turned loose in Kentucky. Judging them by Mexican standards we'll bet they look like baby buzzards.

Bourbon county bird dogs will now start on their annual pilgrimage to starvation that ends along about where the next hunting season begins.

It has been whispered about that some of the girls of Paris smart set are wearing photographs of their sweethearts on their stockings. In case the ardent swain should desire to substitute a new picture—but that's a personal matter altogether.

Bourbon county has had the best ice crop in three years, and the mint crop will be tiptop, but the rest of the making—O tempora! O mores!—Oh, inexpert and unscrupulous distillers!

Says the Old-Timer: "My impression after living a long time is that reformers are people who take your money and give you advice. The only thing we need to destroy our civilization is a few more reformers."

"An original Paris man is the one who doesn't talk about the weather. An exceptional Paris man is the one who hasn't a bad cold. And the most interesting Paris man is the one who doesn't advise you to try 'this, the best thing I ever tried for a bad cold.'"

Thought For The Day
We Americans are a very charitable people, but we often allow our emotions to run away with us. For instance, while America is feeding three millions of the Russians, their government is training two million soldiers in preparation for renewal of war in the spring.

"Chewing gum, chewing gum!"
Chocolate eclaire!
Fizz, fizz, soda water!
Nothing to wear!"
What is this stuff?

The movies are the democratic amusement of a democratic people like "us" Americans. They are the best judges of what is good for them. They exercise natural censorship by patronage of good pictures and boycott the bad ones. Any additional censorship is superfluous. Watch an audience at the Paris Grand and you can soon see their disapproval of an "off-color" film production.

A local modiste says that women's dresses for the coming season are to be more mannish than heretofore, while men's clothes will dazzle with fancy braids and gay colors. This seems to be quite right and goes well with the increasing number of short-haired females and long-haired nondescripts. Men are even painting and powdering a little, they say, and a cute little powder puff fits into the vest pocket where the tobacco used to lodge.

Man Pays Shoemaker's Bill After 42 Years

La Plata, Md.—Wesley Bowie, a retired shoemaker of this town, was much surprised a few days ago by receiving pay for a pair of shoes he made a customer forty-two years ago. At that time Mr. Bowie made for each of three brothers, one of whom was the debtor, a pair of calfskin boots.

This man soon left Charles county without paying his bill, and Mr. Bowie had not heard of him since.

The debtor made a personal trip to La Plata to pay his bill. He found Mr. Bowie and made himself known to him. He said this was the only bill he owed and he wished to cancel that obligation. He then offered Mr. Bowie a $10 bill and asked if that would square the deal with him. Mr. Bowie was perfectly willing to close the account for that amount and the matter was settled. The debtor then stated that he has lived in Montgomery county thirty years on one farm.

EXPOUNDS GOSPEL BY RADIO

Rev. James Lewis, a Denver pastor, intends to make himself heard, and has arranged to install a microphone in his pulpit, so that all the towns in Colorado and within a radius of 125 miles, can "sit in" on his sermons. His first experiment was last week, and more than 100 amateurs heard every word of his sermon. Many towns without preachers, are installing small receiving sets, and after they have heard one of Mr. Lewis' talks, they can change the adjustment of their set and enjoy a little jazz music from Los Angeles. The photograph shows Rev. James Lewis speaking into a microphone that is sending his sermon for hundreds of miles.

BOASTS YOUNGEST LINGUIST

Philadelphia's Two-and-a-Half-Year-Old Refugee From Russia Speaks Four Languages.

Philadelphia.—This city now can boast of possessing the youngest linguist in the world. She is Riva Goren two and a half years old.

Riva is a Russian refugee and has been in this country less than a week. She was brought here by Harry Allen Goren, who adopted her while on a ten months' trip, which took him to virtually every country of Europe. According to Goren, the child's father was massacred in a pogrom a few days before her birth, and her mother died a week later.

WILL BAN GRADE CROSSINGS

United States Will Construct Bridges or Underpasses on Federal Highways.

Washington.—Grade crossings will be eliminated wherever possible and replaced with bridges or underpasses on all roads of the federal aid highway system to be constructed under the federal highway act, the bureau of public roads of the Department of Agriculture announces.

Important roads, many of which at present cross and recross railroads at grades, hereafter will be built entirely on one side of the railroad.

In the three years ending with 1920, according to records available to the bureau, 3,636 lives were lost and 10,644 persons were injured at grade crossings in the United States.

DR. LANDMAN DEAD

Dr. Louis H. Landman, aged sixty-four, of Cincinnati, died in Cairo, Egypt, several weeks ago, where he had gone about a year ago to work with Jewish missionaries in the Holy Land. Dr. Landman was one of the best-known opticians and oculists in the country, and for many years was a regular visitor in Paris, where he had a large clientele. He was a man of culture and had an engaging manner that made him a large circle of friends here.

Valuable People.

The value of a single man or woman of open mind, independent judgment, and moral courage, who requires to be convinced and refuses to be cajoled, is only concerned to be right and not afraid to be singular, deferring to reason but not to rank, true to their own self, and therefore not false to any man—the value of such a man or woman, I say, is priceless; a nation of such would heaven and regenerate the world.—Professor James Ward

First Place at New York and Chicago Shows

For the fourth consecutive year Buick has been awarded first choice of space at the National Automobile Shows. This honor is conferred each year by the automobile manufacturers who are members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, upon the member having done the the greatest volume of business during the previous year.

That Buick has retained this position year after year reflects convincingly the high regard in which Buick is held by the American public. Such regard is a logical outgrowth of Buick policy which has been rigidly maintained for 20 years—that every car which leaves the Buick factory must first, last and all the time give that thoroughly dependable service which will make every Buick owner a Buick enthusiast.

Every Woman Should Read This

Bankston, Ala. — "I had been down with trouble of a feminine character for a good many years. I took medicine from different doctors, but it did not do me any good. Then I heard of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I ordered some of this medicine. I took six dollars' worth of it and I would not take sixty for the good it did me. I surely can praise Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I don't intend to be without it in my home as long as I can get it. I would advise every woman that is bothered with trouble from which women suffer, to use this Prescription." — Mrs. Williamson, Route 2.

OUR NEWS COLUMNS—A STATEMENT OF FACTS

For some time THE NEWS has been developing a policy to refrain from comment upon any matter that appears in our news columns. Necessarily, so marked a change must come slowly, but it is now fully developed.

Except in extraordinary cases, which obviously require more than a bare statement of fact, all expression of opinion has been delegated from the local columns of THE NEWS. Where this policy may offend the vanity of the persons directly concerned, it renders a service to the hundreds of readers who are not concerned.

Our idea is that the average reader does not want some comment—often idle and insincere flattery—upon every local news item that appears in the paper. What the reader wants is the facts, and three or four lines consumed in comment can be devoted to the publication of more.

THE NEWS may lay itself liable to the charge of being cold, but we should prefer being cold and truthful to soft and insincere, and to have our expressions come within the scope of real newspaper work.

In this connection we might remark that no contribution to our columns will be permitted to vent the author's personal spite on some one under the guise of a news item, and that we will use every effort in our power to keep our columns free from such matter.

We shall reserve to our editorial columns the exposition of our views, for what they may be worth, and devote the news columns to a plain and unvarnished statement of fact. This, we believe, conduces both to the highest intellectual and moral standards of a newspaper.

We have been frequently taken to task for not devoting considerable space to some world event happening outside of Kentucky. We leave that class of news to the daily papers. It is their province. We shall confine our space to taking care of important State happenings and all local news we can get. We thank you!

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Monday, January 30, the second semester of the Paris City Schools opened. A number of new students entered the school at this time. A new class of forty Freshmen entered the High School. This new Freshmen class is under the supervision of Miss Mary Louise Lillard, a member of the High School faculty. Miss Lillard is a graduate of Randolph-Macon College and is making a splendid record in the Paris High School.

This group of young High School students are fortunate to have so popular and attractive a leader. New students will be admitted to this class until Monday, February 13. After that date the beginning Freshmen class will be closed to new students.

Friday night, February 3, the Winchester High School girls team will play the Paris High School midget girls team just before the Maysville game. Saturday night, February 4, will be one of the biggest High School nights of the High School year.

The New England Male Quartet, of Boston, will appear under the High School Lyceum course and the basketball teams from the Lexington Senior High School will meet our basketball teams for the second time this season.

The Lexington High School games always prove to be the most popular games in Paris, and it is unfortunate that their game conflicts with the Lyceum attraction, but it is confidently expected that the High School Auditorium will be crowded for this great musical attraction.

Miss Asbury, head of the department of Home Economics, took a class of 20 girls to Lexington, Wednesday, to attend a special demonstration given by the Home Economics Department of the State University.

Miss Asbury will start her evening course in Millinery, Tuesday evening, February 14.

This course is open to the public without any cost, and all are welcome.

The Paris City School evening courses are being largely attended and are proving very helpful and interesting.

The lecture that was to be given Thursday evening, February 2, has been changed to Thursday, February 9, on account of the Commercial Club dinner.

LEE KIRKPATRICK,
Supt. City Schools.

BOURBON FARM CONDITIONS

With the opening of the Paris tobacco warehouses some measure of relief has come to the farmers of Bourbon county, who have patiently awaited the opportunity for disposing of their tobacco and reopening their bank accounts, lack of which had brought business in the city almost to a standstill.

During the past few days the farmers of the county have confined their efforts to the stripping of tobacco, which is now practically finished; to the breaking up of land when the weather permitted, and, in many cases to fertilizing the soil. The few farmers of the county who raised hemp last year have prepared their land for the coming seeding. Some farmers have already made preparations for making tobacco beds for the coming season. Stock feeding is keeping many of the farmers busy. Present indications point to an unusually large crop of lambs for the coming season. Livestock shipments have been reduced to the minimum in the past few weeks. Poultry and eggs have reached a very low point in price, as compared to the same period in the year past.

How Much Are You Taxed?

Our old friend Dooley said, "If anybody offers you something for nothing, do not hesitate. Call a policeman at once."

That is real "horse sense." Did you ever stop and consider what it costs to operate a Delivery Truck? Here are a few things for which you have to pay: Gasoline, Lubricating Oil, New Tires, Repairs and Overhauling, Loss in Value when sold or exchanged, and last but not least, salary of a Driver and usually a Helper. If you have ever owned a Truck, you know.

Do you know that Telephone Operators are paid salaries? Also that Order Clerks, Shipping Clerks and Porters get paid every week or month?

Who do you think pays these salaries and other expenses? If you have given it any thought you will know that the customers do the paying. Just how much of it are you paying? And yet you are told it is "Free Delivery."

PIGGLY WIGGLY has eliminated the above expenses, and that is one of the reasons that "year in and year out" you can obtain the best values in Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables for your money at PIGGLY WIGGLY.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events in Religious Circles For Present and Future

The February meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Christian church will be held in the church parlors to-night, Friday, February 3. Mrs. Julian Frank's group will furnish the program. All the members are requested to be present.

Mr. W. J. Vaughn, of Louisville, Ky., Field Worker for the Kentucky Sunday School Association, will be the chief speaker at a meeting of the officers, teachers and workers of the Various Sunday Schools of Paris, and Bourbon county to be held in this city next Sunday, at 2:30 p. m. Place of meeting the Methodist church. The pastors of the various churches are expected to attend. The public is invited.

Dr. W. D. Riley, noted preacher, lecturer and author, of Minneapolis, Minn., delivered an interesting lecture at the Baptist church to a large audience, taking for his theme, "The Bible, Is It An Evolution or An Inspiration?" Dr. Riley's address was an eloquent and convincing one. In concluding he stated that the Bible, no more commences with an age idea than it ends with a Chicago University professor's conclusions.

At the Methodist church next Sunday the service at 10:45 a. m. will be in charge of Mr. W. J. Vaughn, Field Worker of Kentucky Sunday School Association. Mr. Vaughn has been engaged in this work many years and is a great favorite throughout Central and Eastern Kentucky. At 7:00 p. m. the pastor, Rev. C. H. Greer, will preach on "Repentance." The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m. and at 6:15 p. m. the Epworth League will hold its Mission Study service. A warm welcome for everybody.

Presiding Elder F. B. Jones, of the Maysville District M. E. Church, who resides in Paris, is in Memphis, Tenn., in a meeting with the Presiding Elders and Bishops of the Methodist church, in the interest of the Centenary Movement.

PARIS CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Services will be held in the morning and evening at the usual hours, 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. In the morning W. E. Ellis' subject will be "The Bible School," and in the evening J. W. Vaughn, State Field Bible School Worker, will speak on his work throughout the State. The public

"Does What You Believe About

EVOLUTION

Matter?"

Sermon at the Presbyterian Church Sunday, Feb. 5, 7:15 p. m. Everybody welcome.

is cordially invited to be present at both of these services and any visitors in town will be more than welcome. Two entirely worth while services are promised.

Bible School meets promptly at 9:30. The attendance last Sunday was four hundred and twenty-seven. The Young Men's class had 48; the Men's class, 43 and the Women's class 51. The young men are determined to have the largest and best class in the State and all members are enthusiastic over Mr. Virgil Chapman, their new teacher.

The Christian Endeavor meets promptly at 6 o'clock in the church parlors. All members are urged to be present.

Prayer meeting, led by the pastor, will be held Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The regular quarterly communion service will be held Sunday morning at the hour of morning service. At the evening hour the subject will be "Does What We Believe About Evolution Matter?" This is the second of two sermons along the line of Evolution by the pastor, Rev. T. S. Smylie. The Friendly Church visitation last Sunday afternoon was a great success, the most enthusiastic reports coming from those who did the visiting and those who were visited. There were some homes missed on account of the shortness of the afternoon and the confusion of such a big undertaking. An effort will be made Sunday afternoon to visit all those who were not visited last Sunday. Hours of service: Preaching 10:55 a. m. and 7:15 p. m., Sunday School 9:30, C. E. 6:30. Everybody welcome.

In the contest which closed last Sunday between the young women and the young men of the Sunday School, the Men's Class won by the narrow margin of seventeen points. There were 57 members of the men's class present. The penalty was a supper. All of the members of both the men's and women's classes are urged to be present Sunday morning, as announcements and arrangements for the supper will be made at that time.

The attendance at Sunday School was 252. This is the second largest attendance in the past two years. On Go-To-Sunday-School-Day last year there were 245 present. The goal of the Sunday School is to have for 1922 an average attendance of over 200 rain or shine.

Rev. T. S. Smylie will preach at Palmer's school house at three in the afternoon of Sunday. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend.

The Christian Endeavor Society is going to put life and pep into their programs for 1922. Sunday night a Tableau will be given at 6:45 sharp under the direction of Miss Irene Bramblett. Those who miss it will miss something good.

"THE SPIRIT OF KIWANIS"

Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, Superintendent of the Paris High Schools, is endeavoring to bring to Paris the Kiwanis Players and Quartette. The play, "The Spirit of Kiwanis," was the one big hit at the International Convention of Kiwanis Clubs, which was held in Cleveland, Ohio, last spring, and since that time it has been produced in several of the large cities and towns of America and Canada, always with great success. Now Paris may have an opportunity of seeing it.

It is known that the Kiwanis Players and Quartette are contemplating a tour of Kentucky before going to International Convention, which will convene this year in Toronto, Canada, and Prof. Kirkpatrick is trying to secure them for at least one night at the Paris High School.

This play appeals strongly to every good citizen, and reaches far into the universal mind. It is educational and deals with social and civic problems in a way that is not only instructive and inspiring, but is also exceedingly entertaining and amusing. It is said to be the best patriotic sketch ever written. Enoch Grehan, the dramatic critic of the Lexington Herald, calls it "a masterpiece," and "a gem." Sue Harvard, the Metropolitan Opera star, who recently appeared in Lexington, gave expression to her enthusiasm in the terse sentence: "It is the biggest little thing I have ever seen." But "The Spirit of Kiwanis" is not the only feature on the Kiwanis program. Prof. Mikesell and his quartette and Prof. Saxon as reader will also appear.

If Prof. Kirkpatrick is successful in securing this attraction for Paris the entertainment will be for the benefit of the High School Annual.

TO CONTINUE DRIVE FOR WILSON FOUNDATION

The nation-wide campaign to raise $1,000,000 for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation will continue until the goal has been reached, according to a telegram received by Judge Robt. W. Bingham, chairman for Kentucky, from Hamilton Holt, of New York, executive chairman of the national organization.

"Reports for the first week of the campaign are most encouraging," the message said. "Widespread sentiment everywhere needs only expression through proper organization to obtain fund in excess of that sought. As campaign will proceed until fund is raised I am urging each State to continue unceasing efforts until quota is reached."

None of the district chairmen in Kentucky has sent into State headquarters official reports as yet, according to Claude W. Perry, State secretary.

ANTI-TRADING STAMP CAMPAIGN GAINING

A bill which is being advocated by Kentucky merchants, and which is being opposed tenaciously by the trading stamp companies, is the McCaw bill, to suppress these devices. This bill, after a bitter struggle, won a favorable report in the House Committee on Kentucky Statutes, by vote of 4 to 3, two members being absent. It is now in the calendar, and may come to a vote this week.

Advocates of the measure contended at committee hearing that the stamps impose an additional burden of 3 per cent. a year on the cost of doing business, which, they said, was transferred to the consumer. The stamp companies' representatives claim that the cost was less than 2 per cent. and said that it was their way of giving discounts. The bill is being supported by the Retailers' Association of Kentucky; also, State organizations of druggists, clothiers, hardware dealers and others.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE FOR FEBRUARY 8

Mr. David Goldstein, of Philadelphia, an orator of national repute, will come to Paris on Wednesday night, February 8, and lecture at the court house at 8:00 o'clock, under the auspices of the P. I. McCarthy Council Knights of Columbus. Mr. Goldstein will take for his theme, "History In The Making." The lecture will be free to all.

Mr. Goldstein has delivered his lecture on hundreds of occasions. It has been pronounced a masterpiece of eloquence and oratory. Mr. Goldstein was in Lexington, about a year ago, when the Knights of Columbus gave an entertainment, and those from Paris who heard him class him as one of the best speakers they have ever listened to. He should be greeted here by a large crowd.

FORMER PARISIAN ILL

A letter received by Paris friends recently from Meredith, Texas, announced the illness there of Bruce Miller, former editor and owner of the Kentuckian-Citizen. While his illness is not of a critical nature, it is serious enough to cause apprehension among his friends. Mr. Miller has been in bad health for several months, and recently disposed of his newspaper holdings here to go to Texas in hopes of effecting some improvement in his health.

JUDGE STOUT TO LEAVE FOR FLORIDA

The Frankfort State Journal says regarding the illness of Judge Robt. L. Stout, Circuit Judge of this district, of which Bourbon is a part: "Judge Robert L. Stout, who is in New York under the care of specialists, will leave there the early part of the week for Florida. Although his health has improved since reaching New York, Judge Stout has been advised by his physicians to take a complete rest for at least three months. During his absence in Florida, Mrs. Stout will be in Lexington. Miss Mary DeWitt Snyder, of Lexington, director of Trail's End Camp, has just concluded a visit to Mrs. Stout."

NEWS OF THE COURTS

In the County Court, Sidney Johnson, colored, was given a hearing before Judge George Batterton, on a charge of setting up and operating a moonshine still, and having liquor in his possession. After hearing the testimony of the arresting officers and others in the case, Judge Batterton held Johnson in $250 bond to appear before the grand jury at the next term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. Being unable to furnish this Johnson was sent to jail.

Charley Jones, Will Warren, Jim Jefferson and Jim Burton, all colored residents of Clayville, were presented in the County Court on a charge of stealing coal from the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and were held in $200 bond each, to appear at the next term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. In default of bond, they were sent to jail.

Virgil Smart and Leonard McClanahan, who were arrested by Patrolman George W. Judy, on a charge of indulging in a game of "African golf" in the Faulkner livery stable on Second street, were brought before Police Judge Ernest Martin for a hearing. They were fined $20 and costs each. Smart furnished bond, but McClanahan accepted a proposition to work for the city for a stated period.

In the civil suit of the Samuel Ach Co., of Cincinnati, against Chas. Goldstein, proprietor of the Twin Bros. Department Store, of Paris, which was tried before County Judge George Batterton, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. The suit was brought to recover the sum of $152, alleged due for returned goods. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney O. T. Hinton, while W. H. Whitley represented the defendant.

FIRE DAMAGES BRADLEY STUDIO AT GEORGETOWN

The fire at Georgetown late Monday night, which gutted the Quinlan building, worked havoc in the Bradley Studios, a branch of which is conducted in Paris.

The studio, which was located on the second floor, above the Kravetz dry goods store, was almost completely destroyed by the flames, practically nothing being saved. The reception room had been newly furnished throughout. The loss to the Bradleys was estimated at $5,000, with insurance of $3,500. The studio will be reopened as soon as a suitable location can be secured. In the meantime it is probable they will make use of the Paris studio to accommodate their patrons.

Sheep Brought to America.
No domesticated sheep were found in America. The big horn or wild rocky mountain sheep were known to the first settlers, but efforts to domesticate them and cross them with domesticated sheep have proven failures. The early introductions were made by the Spanish discoverers and the English settlers. Columbus brought Spanish sheep to America in 1493. In 1565 Spanish sheep were introduced into Florida and in 1773 into California. In 1800 sheep were introduced into Virginia from England.

HENRY FORD THE MAN TO DEVELOP MUSCLE SHOALS

If a vote of the people could be taken on whether or not Henry Ford shall have the Muscle Shoals project to develop, it would be overwhelmingly in favor of letting him do the work. But it is easy to see that Secretary Weeks does not want him to have it.

Why do the people feel thus? Well, while they look with some indulgence on Ford's economic and sociological views, and even though out of sympathy with some of them, they have complete confidence in two things in him:

First, they believe him to be an honest man who, when he promises to make the Muscle Shoals project a blessing to the nation, means it, and has the engineering basis for both believing that he can do it and the means to carry out his intentions.

Second, they have seen him do engineering, manufacturing and mechanical marvels for many years, and do not believe he is talking any wild nonsense when it comes to the great project of making a salvage for the government at Muscle Shoals.

Why then the seeming hesitation on the part of the secretary?

When all is said and done Ford is a national problem. He has all sorts of irregular ideas and ways. He is the great outsider in American business generally to-day. The richest man in America, and with the possible exception of Hugo Sinnes, the richest man in the world, making money at the rate of perhaps a quarter of a million dollars a day, he does not play the business game according to the old Wall Street rules. By the very nature of things such a power as his wealth gives him must be used. He is showing a tendency to spread out. He is already in the railway game.

The fact is, his achievement is outdoing everybody else in amassing wealth, without cutting wages, while enjoying no monopoly, and while asking no favors of Wall Street, makes him a creature of sinister import to the Wall Street crowd. They wonder at him. And since he returned on them and refinished himself at the deflation period in that perfectly thrilling way without bowing to Wall Street, they fear him.

If he fails to get the concession at Muscle Shoals, inquire in the neighborhood of Trinity Church—where Wall Street intersects with Broadway. It will be Wall Street which will keep him from it.

If Wall Street had offered as good a bargain to the government as Ford offers, it would have had the contract in its pocket long ago.

In other words, it has got both war and hell backed up in a corner yelling for ice water.—Boston Transcript.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me."—ROSS WADNER, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Just plain statements, but they want other women to be helped.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

HAY'S ASSAULT ON THE PARCEL POST

No special branch of the government service is of equal benefit to the people generally as the parcel post service. Its growth and development have been a great boon especially rural residents, and the people in sparsely settled communities have come to depend upon it for obtaining a great variety of supplies, which prior to its establishment could only be had at great inconvenience and expense. It is now proposed, with the approval of Postmaster General Hays, to cripple it not to destroy this splendid universal service by depriving it of its special delivery feature and restricting the use of the special delivery stamp or its equivalent to first-class mail matter. This, of course, means the consequent enrichment of the express company and an increased transportation tax upon the consumer.

As Representative Arthur B. Rouse (Dem. Ky.) says, it is "a deliberate attempt to throttle and cripple our great parcel post service. It robs the producer, the consumer, the seller and the buyer of the splendid service they now have and the bill could not be more in the interest of the express companies had they themselves drawn it."

Postmaster General Hays' support of the bill is based upon his statement that the volume of parcel post matter carrying special delivery stamps is so great that it is physically impossible to treat more expeditiously than ordinary mail matter, which statement Mr. Rouse characterizes as "a humiliating spectacle of inefficiency on the part of the Postoffice Department."

With the huge postal deficiency staring him in the face, it might be assumed that Postmaster General Hays would at least wish to retain the revenues derived from this service, but still we must remember that there is a Republican administration and therefore the interest of the express companies as well as other big corporations must be considered.

FARMERS SHOULD RAISE MORE GOOD UTILITY HORSES

Federal Authorities State That Horses Are More Economical on Farms Than Motorized Tractors or Trucks—An Infusion of Thoroughbred Blood Gives Spirit, Vigor And Endurance To All Breeds

There is now a recognized "horse zone" where short hauls and frequent stops are necessary in both city and country into which the truck and tractor cannot enter and compete with the horse without loss to the merchant and the farmer. After a costly experiment the horse is coming into his own, displacing the motorized truck and tractor, particularly on the farm, where it has been conclusively demonstrated that there is economy in breeding a suitable type of horse for a varied agricultural service.

At a recent meeting in Chicago of the Horse Association of America, H. C. Taylor, Chief of the Federal Bureau of Farm Markets, presented some interesting figures, the result of official investigations, proving that horses are more economical in every field of operation on farms than the motorized tractor or truck.

Computed on 1921 feed prices, the cost of power per acre, according to the U. S. Department findings, is $1.37 for plowing with horses as compared with $1.72 with tractors; disking, 34c with horses and 55c with tractors; disking in combination, 32c with horses as against 59c with tractors; harrowing 18c with horses as against 30c with tractors; drawing hay loader, 52c with horses and 91c with tractors, and drawing grain binder, 31c with horses, 55c with tractors.

The value of mechanical motive power is clearly recognized by the Horse Association of America, but after a thorough nation-wide inquiry, it has been shown that the enforced displacement of the horse in farm work has been expensive to the farmer and has increased the cost of living to every family in America.

The various State Agricultural Colleges, particularly in the central west, are stressing the point that horses should be bred for the definite qualities which stand the test of long, hard service, an infusion of thoroughbred blood giving spirit, vigor and endurance to the colder breeds.

George Lane, head of a $1,000,000 live-stock ranch in Canada, in a recent letter to Wayne Dismore, Secretary of the Horse Association of America, said:

"I have crossed Thoroughbred sires on broncho mares; on high grade Clydesdale mares; on mares sired by Percheron stallions out of broncho dams; on mares that were 3/4 or 1/2 Percheron; and whenever I had a pure bred Percheron mare that would not settle to a Percheron sire, I bred her to a thoroughbred sire, and usually got such mares in foal, the result being a crossbred thoroughbred Percheron. We have bred the female produce resulting from these various crosses to both thoroughbred and Percheron sires, so that we have horses carrying various degrees of thoroughbred blood—from 1/4 to 3/4 bred from mares of various types and blood strains. From long experience in the use of such horses, and our actual breeding operations, I know that the thoroughbred cross on any draft mare increases quality, endurance, and length of life."

The manufacture of mechanical motive power already has caused an enormous drain upon our available labor resources, so that every time a farmer, or business man, buys a mechanical power unit which he does not absolutely need, he is simply bidding up the labor market against himself. Nor can the market for coarse grains be left out of consideration. The displacement of horses occurring in the years 1910 to 1920, destroyed an annual market for over 113 million bushels of oats, 70 million bushels of corn and 4 1/2 million tons of hay—more than the average total export per year on these items. The curtailment of city demand cuts off not only the outlet for surplus farm horses, but this great market for staple farm products.

LEARNS SECRET OF ARROW HEADS

Illinois Man Gets Credit as Only Man Who Knows How to Make Them.

INDIAN CHIEFS LOSE TRICK

Many of Them Confess Their Ignorance of Just How to Make Arrow Heads—Are Identified by Tribal Marks.

Springfield.—Making of Indian arrow heads has been reduced to its first principles here by Herbert Wells Fay, custodian of the Lincoln monument, who has gained the distinction, which it is said until now has been undisputed, of being the only white man to make real arrow heads.

Indians are among the foremost in crediting Mr. Fay with this ability. Drawn to the last resting place of Abraham Lincoln, various present-day Indian chiefs have openly confessed their ignorance of "just how" to make arrow heads, and then have voiced their surprise at the excellent workmanship of the white man.

Finding that his arrows have been taken for the work of real Indians, Mr. Fay no longer makes arrows of flint, but to prevent fraud uses only glass.

Worked Near Dekalb.

His study of arrow heads was gained largely near his former home at Dekalb, in which vicinity, he said, there had been seven Indian camps.

Mr. Fay takes issue with other authorities who say arrow heads may be identified by their shape as the work of a particular tribe. Years of study and the actual making of arrows prove otherwise, Mr. Fay declares.

His conclusions as to arrow-making are outlined as follows: "Indians first tried stones that break with a conchoidal fracture (like the inside of a spoon). They found that the deeper the break at the top of the flat-surfaced stone the longer would be the break in the stone, but it would be correspondingly wide. They wished, however, a long, narrow piece as more suitable for an arrow head.

"They then found that by breaking the stone at a corner they could produce such a 'flake' (raw arrow head) one, two, or even five times its width, according to the skill of the artisan. Such an arrow head always has a ridge on one side and the other side smooth. The ridge is the corner of the stone from which the flake was broken.

"Next, the Indian found that in finishing the arrow head, if the stone breaks easier from one direction on the top, it would break just as easily from the other on the bottom. This gave rise to the belief that arrow heads were made to revolve. Such was not the intention of arrow makers, as the same natural peculiarity appears in spear heads, which are too heavy to revolve, as spears were seldom expected to go more than a few times their length.

"These principles being true of all stone used by the Indians, it is an evident impossibility for any collector to tell what tribe made certain arrow or spear heads. The width, depth and thickness, determined by the depth of the fracture of the stone, determine the shape and appearance of the finished product."

Chert Center in Illinois.

Most of the arrow heads of the north Mississippi valley, Mr. Fay said, were made of chert, a chalky flint, taken from the quarries in Union county, Illinois, near Cairo. The bluffs at that place along the Mississippi river, show outcroppings of this chert and prolific evidences of the activity of Indians, who went there from all parts of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin, he added.

"Less than 1 per cent of the arrow heads found in this wide territory," Mr. Fay continued, "seem to have been made from local stone. The Union county quarries have been determined as the principal source because arrows found throughout that region corresponded exactly to the quality of the Union county stone. It is not known whether expert 'flake' makers held the quarries in Union county and distributed material to tribes as they came down, or whether each tribe had its flake makers and visited the quarries periodically.

Implements used by Indians in making arrow heads, according to Mr. Fay, were made with one tool, a piece of bone somewhat like the handle of a toothbrush.

ENGLISH WOMEN SMOKE LESS

Habit Is on the Decline Among Those Studying at Oxford University.

London.—An informal census of the habits of the Oxford woman undergraduate reveals the interesting fact that, roughly speaking, only one in five smokes, and that in the 20 per cent of smokers very few make a habit of the cigarette.

They smoke one or two now and then, as a social accomplishment rather than a pleasant amusement. The undergraduate who invites her friends and acquaintances to 9 o'clock cocoa is not expected to provide either "gaspers" or Egyptians. It is no sign of hospitality not to offer a smoke.

FORMER NURSE GAINS 25 POUNDS TAKING TANLAC

"I Don't Hesitate To Recommend It To Anyone Suffering From Stomach Trouble And Kindred Complaints," States Well Known Seattle Woman.

"After hearing so much about Tanlac I bought a bottle thinking it did others so much good it might help me, too. Well, it has not only helped me, but I have actually gained twenty-five pounds since taking it and never felt better in my life," said Mrs. Marie J. Howard, graduate nurse of Bellevue Hospital, 402 Westlake avenue, North, Seattle, Washington.

"My appetite is good now and my stomach is in such splendid condition that everything I eat agrees with me. I used to be bothered a good deal by my kidneys and liver, but now they seem normal in every way.

"My nerves are calm and steady and I sleep like a child every night. I have had a great deal of experience with medicine and I don't hesitate to recommend Tanlac to those who have stomach trouble and kindred complaints."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at Roche's Drug Store, and all leading drug stores. (adv)

Art.

Art, like the universe, exists for its own sake, and as the universe remains eternally the same, though our conceptions of the universe are subject to incessant change, so must art remain independent of the ephemeral conceptions of art.—Heine.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lagging feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

The First Secessionist.

The first person to suggest secession in congress is supposed to have been Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts. In 1811 he told his colleagues that if Louisiana were admitted to the Union "it will be the right of all and duty of some (of the states) definitely to prepare for a separation; amicably if they can, violently if they must." Quincy was called to order for his remarks by the speaker, but on appeal the speaker's decision was reversed.

Old Court Has Much Power.

In Liverpool (Eng.) there still exists one of the very few remaining medieval borough courts of record. At one time there were 215 in various parts of the kingdom. The Liverpool court of passage, as it is called, has practically unlimited jurisdiction in cases of action arising within the city, and has more power than has the City of London court which has jurisdiction only when the defendant is employed in the city itself.

SIMPSON.

In the death of William G. Simpson, in Lexington, Kentucky has lost one of the best-known horsemen of "the old school." Though a native of Paris, Mr. Simpson moved to Lexington at an early age, and had an intimate knowledge of famous horses and horsemen around Lexington and in Kentucky for more than forty years.

Mr. Simpson never raced horses to any extent, but like many other traders, developed horses. He assisted L. V. Harkness in some of his early purchases of brood mares for Walnut Hill Farm. Later he was associated with Durbin Horne, of Pittsburg, training a number of horses for him, the best known of which was Tramp-fest 2:02 1/4, former two-year-old race champion. Mr. Simpson was well-known to Bourbon county horsemen with whom he was very popular.

MAN WANTED FOR THEFT ESCAPES HARRISON SHERIFFS

Saturday night Ernest Hughes, of Leeslick, Harrison county, escaped from Sheriff Ingels and Deputy Sheriff Ammerman, of Harrison county, after he had been arrested on a warrant charging him and another young man named Wood Anderson of the same vicinity, with the theft of about 3,000 pounds of tobacco from the barn of Vol W. Ferguson, near Centerville, this county.

The Harrison county sheriffs arrested Hughes at Leeslick and took him to Leesburg, where Sheriff M. Peale Collier, of Bourbon county, was waiting. Then it was arranged to take Hughes back home where his father would execute bond for his appearance at the examining trial. While the sheriffs were arranging the bond, which was partly written, young Hughes' mother fainted, or became suddenly sick, and in the resulting confusion the young man made a break for liberty, upsetting furniture, and rushing from the room. He got away, and has not been recaptured.

The tobacco in question was taken from the Ferguson barn in a large truck, and taken to Cincinnati, where it was disposed of to a tobacco house, the purchasers not knowing it had been stolen. The men claimed the tobacco as their own, and that they had raised it in this county.

FORMER SECRETARY HACKER TO LEAVE PARIS

Mr. William E. Hacker, who some days ago resigned his position as Secretary of the Paris Commercial Club, will leave Paris this week for his old home in Columbus, Indiana. After a short vacation there Mr. and Mrs. Hacker will probably go to Indianapolis, to make that place their future home.

Mr. Hacker, according to information yesterday, will make his headquarters in Indianapolis, where he will open an office as organizer of Chambers of Commerce, operating principally in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. During his residence in Paris Mr. Hacker made many friends who regret that he is leaving the city. The good wishes of all his old and new friends in the business life of Paris will accompany him and Mrs. Hacker.

Harold F. Harris, who was selected to succeed Mr. Hacker, took charge of the work in the Commercial Club offices Wednesday. The offices will be moved to the Price building on Main street, now occupied by the Bourbon County Farm Bureau. In Mr. Harris the Commercial Club and the business men of Paris will find a "live wire" secretary.

"CLOSE UP" OF POPULAR PARIS STUDENT

The Lexington Herald's sporting writer gives the following "close up" of Basil Hayden, of Paris, who has sprung into prominence in the athletic world as football and basketball star of the University of Kentucky squads:

"Basil Hayden, of Paris, Ky., all-Southern guard in 1921. Hayden started his basketball career on the Paris High school team. He entered Transylvania in 1917 and made the team as a freshman. He went to the University of Kentucky the next fall to take chemistry, but was ineligible for athletics for a year. In 1920 he was one of the outstanding players of the state, doing great work at forward for the Wildcats. In 1921 he captained the Blue and White aggregation that won the first official championship of the South. This year despite the handicap of an injured knee, his work appears better than ever before. He won track letters in 1920 and 1921 by slinging the discus and javelin. He weighs 160 pounds, is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, and has curly hair. Next."

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The graded pupils of the school will present the pageant, "The Sleeping Beauty," on Thursday and Friday evenings, February 16 and 17, under direction of Mrs. Williams, of Lexington. Mrs. Williams has had large experience in this line of work and the play is bound to be a great success.

The Home Economics Department of the High School, accompanied by the head of that department, Miss Maude Asbury and Miss Laura Lileston, attended the sessions of the Home Economic Department, held at the College of Agriculture, of the University of Kentucky, and also heard the address delivered by Dean Sarah Louise Arnold, of Simmons College, Boston.

FRIVOLOUS REFLECTIONS

It is plain that improvement of the species by natural selection is slow, when in 1922 there's a row in supposedly enlightened Kentucky against the species reading Darwin's speculations upon the effect of natural selection.
